Section 3: Useful starting points

Portals: many record collections brought together for researching:

- Population and Family History
- Age of Revolution (1798 rebellion, US Revolution)
- Age of Conquest: medieval Ireland

Gold Seams: Ten particularly rich collections for researching more specific topics.

Curated Collections: Different series of records united by a common theme e.g. maps, or the Dublin Gazette (1750-1800).

Tip: You can search within any Portal, Gold Seam or Curated Collection to find records only from that particular part of the Virtual Treasury.

The screenshot shows the top section of a record page. At the top left is the 'Virtual Record Treasury of Ireland' logo. To the right is a 'Browse the Treasury' button. Below the logo is a search bar with the placeholder text 'Enter a keyword, person, place or reference number'. To the right of the search bar is a dropdown menu for 'All categories' and a 'Search' button. Below the search bar are links for 'FAQ', 'Glossary', and 'Help'. On the right side, there is a link for 'Advanced Search'. Below these elements is a breadcrumb trail: 'Home > Browse > This Item'. A 'You are here' section shows a hierarchical list of categories: 'Virtual Record Treasury of Ireland', 'VRTI CEN - Censuses of Ireland, 1766-1891', 'VRTI CEN/1821 - Census of Ireland, 1821', 'VRTI CEN/1821/3 - 1821 Census: Ulster province', 'VRTI CEN/1821/3/30 - 1821 Census: Armagh county', 'VRTI CEN/1821/3/30/5 - 1821 Census: Oneilland West barony', 'VRTI CEN/1821/3/30/5/5 - 1821 Census: Kilmore civil parish', and 'VRTI CEN/1821/3/30/5/5/Drumnahuncheon - 1821 Census: Drumnahuncheon (Drumnahunshin) townland'. A 'Hide' link is at the bottom of this list. Below the breadcrumb trail is a large section with a light blue background. On the left is a document icon. To the right of the icon is the title '1821 Census: Drumnahuncheon (Drumnahunshin) townland'. Below the title are two buttons: 'Census Gleanings' and 'Population 1650 - 1900'. To the right of these buttons is the PID: ark:/75929/377490 and a 'Cite this' button. On the far right of this section are two buttons: 'Previous' and 'Next'. Below this section are four buttons: 'View Digital Content', 'View Sub-Level', 'View 2 Linked Items', and 'View Knowledge Graph Links'. At the bottom right of this section is a Creative Commons license icon. Below the buttons are two tabs: 'Scope & Content' and 'Descriptive Elements'.

At the bottom of the record you will see the transcribed names. There is no digital image.
